OUR NIGHT DISPATCHES.

THE ROANOKE AND TAR RIVER FAIR.

Foreign Miscellany-Judge Lynch's Court---The Pimlico Races--A General Medley of News.

Special Dispatch to the News.

Weldon, October 23.-It was a gloomy morning. The rain had poured down throughout the night, and the prospects for an interesting day were blue indeed. Everybody had to have a fling at the weather, and many expressed a wish for the piles of dust at the Raleigh Fair in preference to that which was chilling to the marrow those in attendance here. But after a time the clouds broke away and the sun peeped out, and the grumbling took another turn-it was the mud this time. Faces brightened up, however, and as the extra trains brought in from every direction large crowds, acquaintances met and in their conversation the day's discomforts were forgotten.

The racing was lively. As I have stated in a previous dispatch the display was very fine, and there was a fair assortment for those who wished to invest money on their relative rates of speed. The races covered the three styles-running, trotting and pacing.

The first race was a trotting race, and was won by Whitley's "Shot," Second, running, was won by "Out-cast," "Swannanoa" second.

Third, a pacing race, was won by "Gray Nellie."

Fourth, a two-mile dash, won by "Pillbox," but contested on the ground that the jockey rode under weight. The judges will render their decision to-morrow.

There will be three races to-morrow, two running and one trotting. After the Fair is ended, I will forward a concise sketch of the exhibition.

Minor Foreign Items. LONDON, Oct. 23 .- A Jellalabad dispatch says the mutinous Afghan regiments have been dispersed.

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 22.—The jury in the trial of Joseph A. Blair for the murder of John Armstrong, sent word at 9 A. M. that they would communicate with the country control. cate with the court soon. At 11:35 they appeared in court, a death-like silence appeared in court, a death-like silence prevailing. The clerk read the list of jurymen and asked, "Do you find the defendant guilty or not guilty in manner or form as charged?" Foreman Doremus responded, "Not guilty." Blair gave a moaning cry and fell on his knees beside his wife, while the court room rang with applause. Mrs. his knees beside his wife, while the court room rang with applause. Mrs. Blair and most of the audience wept and cheered in spite of the reprimands of the court. Ex-Judge Titsworth asked for a formal order of discharge, which was granted, and the jury were dismissed with the thanks of the court. At 1 o'clock Blair was taken in a carriage to his home in Montclair. There was no disturbance. The jury are understood to have stood 10 to 2 in favor of acquittal until the last vote. The jury had been out 97 hours when the verdict was rendered.

Incendiarism.

WHEELING, W. Va., Oct. 23 .- Bethany College, in Bethany county, West Virginia, was partially destroyed by an incendiary fire this morning. The fire broke out in the north wing at 3 o'clock, and owing to the scarcity of water the wing was entirely destroyed. The only property saved was five fine oil paintings which were presented to the societies by Mr. Keene Richards, of Kentucky, and valued at ten thou-sand dollars. Some of them were considerably damaged. The various societies of the College lose their libraries. The wing was valued at $30,000. The insurance is $25,000.

On the 27th of January last Moore was found dead at the bottom of a roal shute, with both his legs cut off below the knees. A young girl who was picking coal near Neversink Station, saw three men throw Moore's body into the shute, and upon her information Knabb has just been arrested. He disclaims all knowledge of the crime.

A dispatch from Colonel Hatch, at Fort Lewis, Colorado, October 16th, states that on the 8th instant six Indians came from the White River Agency to the Southern Utes, and that night a war dance was held, after which many young warriors left with the White River visitors. The latter fired the young bucks with the report of a great victory over Thornburgh's troops. The chiefs of the Southern Utes said it was impossible to control the young men.

GLADSTONE'S OPINION.

INDIA NOTHING TO FEAR FROM

The Austro-German Alliance Doubtless Intended as a Check on the [] Russian Advance.

Paris, Oct. 22.—Regarding the reported interview with Mr. Gladstone the Gaulois further says: Mr. Gladstone deprecated contention with Russia about Afghanism, and said he b lieved there would not be any; that India had absolutely nothing to fear from Russia, which has as much as she can do to hold her conquests in Turkestan. The Austro-German alliance, he said, was doubtless intended as a check to Rusiia; but the importance of such alliance should not be exaggerated as Prince Bismarck would abandon it as readily as he had abandoned parliamentary parties which had served his purpose. Mr. Gladstone said he thought France and England had made a mistake in permitting Turkey to resume her privileges in Egypt by the deposi-tion of the Khedive; that it was also a mistake to exclude the other European powers from sharing in Egyptian control. England's road to India, he said, must be retained by keeping up her maritime supremacy. Mr. Gladstone said his recent visit to India satisfied him that that the Italia Irredenta questions are supremacy. tion would not prove a source of canger to the peace of Italy. He said he believed the next election in England would return a liberal majority. He pointed out Lord Derby's course as an important sign of the times. He expressed a flattering opinion of the pres-ent position and future prospect of France. He said he did not believe such episodes as the election of M. Humbert were of any importance. The Tele-graphe (evening paper of Paris) also reports an interview with the English ex-premier, in which Mr. Gladstone is represented as saying that the present French constitution was well-framed, that the American constitution was likewise excellent for that country, and that since the civil war the American government had given repeated proofs of wisdom. English thinkers, he said, have watched with sympathetic curios-

a purely elective government. STATE NEWS.

GUILDFORD. GREENSBORO, Oct. 22.—The weather is something cooler, and for two days it has been rainy and quite seasonable, and farmers are once more happy. Trade has been lively here the past week, and things and faces here put on a brighter appearance.

Long before 6 o'clock this evening the M. E. Church was well filled with bright and joyous faces in anticipation of the marriage of Robt. Before 5:30 o'clock nine bandsome carriages and phætons from Vanstory's livery made their appearance on the street in line, which, on repairing to he College, took in the twenty-eight attendants, with the bride and groom, and soon made their appearance at the church door, marching in slowly, two by two, in each of the church aisles, neeting each other in front of the altar and passing, the bride and groom stopping in front, and under a very handsome large arch, reaching to the ceiling, in the center of which hung a large bell, all of evergreens and flowers in great profusion; the pulpit and altar also were finely decorated with beaut iful flowers, for which our city is so much noted. The attendants were as follows: Miss Millie Scales and W. A Gorrell; Miss Eliza Myers and Mr. Mc-Gee; Miss Dora Jones and Nil Ellington; Anna Staples and ——; Bessie Easley and Charles Fisher; Jennie Wilson and Joseph M. Morehead; Maud Brent and James K. C.H. Wiley. All who heard him, say it was full of instruction and replete, carrying many old persons back to their early days. This church has had but three ministers, in over a hundred years. The first was Dr. David Caldwell, for sixty years, and the next, Rev. Eli Caruthers for forty years and now Rev. W. B. Tin-ball, some six or eight years. So interesting was said sketch that the Presbytery at once resolved to print it in pamphlet form, at 25 cents each; quite a list was received at the place, and Mrs. W. S. Moore (Greensboro, N. ASHEVALE, Oct. 23.—Veather this morning very cool; cooler than has been experienced since last spring.

The cool weather is in consequence of the recent rains, which have been quite heavy, swelling all the streams, and especially the French Broad, doin; considerable damage. No mails until last night have reached us from the east since Thursday. The cause is alides, high waters and washed away trestles in the mountains, which are reported to be tremendous. The Baptist Convention convened in Hendersonville on Thursday last and juite a number from this county were in attendance, all of whom are now

The season of the year has come for the very trees to put on this appearance and to add to this natural gloom the artificial gloom we see, for there are many long and solid looking faces to be seen on the streets and byways; the causes for which are various, but the most common cause, believe, is the loss of a summer belle But there is consolation if we would only take it, for we know that some of them at least, will return and that Ralleigh, Columbia and other places will not always hold or retain by their Fairs and other attractions all of them. The recent rains, which I forgot to men tion, did great damage to the warehouses now being constructed in this place for the sale of leaf tobacco and forced the builders to announce the opening sale to come off on the 19th, excite attention and investigation of the causes. These are various: First, The war itself, with its elevation of poor men to rank and emoluments to which they had neither claim nor expectations. These ceasing at the restoration of peace, plunged them into situation far worse than that from which they had risen, with intellect developed and dispositions changed, ideas in fact developed which made the

INCREASE OF SUICIDES.

THEORY OF THE CAUSES OF THE INCREASE.

Despair----Impatience---- Infidelity----Injustice of Things--- A Nation of Gamblers and the Result.

The vast increase of suicides in the that "Quiet to quick bosoms is a hell." Second, The American people were noted for their patience. A gentleman of a philosophical mind, who visited England about sixteen years since, said what struck him most during his sojourn there was the contrast between the brutality of the English and the patience of the American people. Im-migration and constant mixture of blood, luxury, the ease with which forunes were made during the war, and lost during the several crashes which succeded it, and many other similar causes have changed our people from a patient into, in many respects an impatient one. This is prolific of suicide.

Third, Infidelity. We were a lawabiding and a religious nation. We are a reading people. The world has been flooded, within the last ten years, with a class of works which have undertaken, from scientific standpoints, to shake the public faith in the Bible and its vital element, revelation in regard to the resurrection of the dead and the judgment to come. The Teutonic element was always too much and unhappily infected with a poison which has affected even the superstitious Celt. Of all the races in the world, the Anglo-Saxon is the only one which comprehends and obeys the stern laws of duty. As soon as the restraints of religion abandon their hold, or the abuse of liberty, which is license, influences the souls of men, they become reckless. Disabuse the mind of the dread of retribution beyond the grave, and substitute the infernal doctrine that death is rest, and man at once desperately embraces suicide as release; accepts the postulate death is eternal sleep, and sleeps self-slain. Better the old Bible of King James with its erroneous translations, if such in vital points there be, than the revised Scriptures which convert the sraelite into a and the nominal Christian into an unhappy wretch, worse than the most eless heathen. Fourth The injustice of the existing state of things in this country and the recognition by the masses of success ful unrighteousness or crime as preferable to virtue without money. In the Old World the laws are made against crime, In this country laws are really so loosely drawn as to enable crime to baffle punshment. Beyond the Atlantic crime has got to be decent to escape punishment. Here, if it is united with cunning and political adaptability, it elevates a wretch, grimy with the filth of the very slums, foul in body and infamous of soul, to tyrannize over the respectable classes. As a rule our sucessful politicians belong not to the best, but to the worst classes. Fallen humanity comprehends this too soon. It applies the worst insinuation of Hamlet's soliloquy, not the best, and desperately despondent takes the "dread leap in the dark."

Fifth, We have become a nation of gamblers. Not at the faro table or with cards or dice alone, but in everything, and experience teaches that the fate of the unsuccessful cleaned-out gambler is self-destruction. Many other reasons might be adduced. A French writer of eminence said that this country prospered and was moral as long as the body politic could eliminate the poison of immigration and assimilate what was good in it. What was said of Imperial Rome is true of this land, but especially Metropolitan New York. We have become the cesspool of the world. The poison has permeated every fiber, the body politic can no longer throw it off. The first result is the multiplication of suicides. In the near future stand the grim specters of greater horrors. PRACTICAL BALLOONING.

Ingenious Plan for Raising Sunken Vessels.

In the Plotzen Lake, which is not far from Berlin, and the depth of which is very considerable, reaching in some parts to twenty-eight meters, an interesting attempt has been made to raise sunken vessels. The method, which is the invention of Herr Eidner, a Vienna civil engineer, consists in applying carbonic acid in the following manner: In an empty balloon a bottle half filled with sulphuric acid, surrounded with Bullrich's salt, is fixed; the bottle is destroyed by turning a screw, and the two substances mix and produce car-bonic acid, which fills the balloon. It s obvious that when this apparatus i brought into operation in the hull of a sunken ship the effect must be, if a sufficent number of balloons are filled, to raise the vessel. In the experiments on the Plotzen Lake, a small vessel or boat, weighing several hundred weight, was first sunk. A diver then went down with the necessary apparatus, which he set in operation in the interior of the ship. Hardly had he done so be fore the vessel began to rise to the sur face, where it was maintained by the balloon. In a second experiment five heavy sacks filled with sand were thrown overboard in a part of the lake which was sixteen metres deep. The diver descended, fastened all the sacks together, and fixing the balloon apparatus to them, set it going, with the effect that the whole of the sacks were brought up to the surface.

Governors of States will please take notice that in writing their Thanksgiving proclamations this year, it will not be in order to omit a suitable mention of J. Sherman in connection with the crops. The people must be invited to assemble, etc., "to render thanks for the abundant harvest which Divine Providence, by direction of J. Sherman. has vouchsafed."

The Usual Way. Springfield Republican.

New Orleans is now "out of sorts" because the $10,000 promised by the national board of health toward clean-scattered throughout the country and scattered throughout the country and of trying to boss the State and local health officials, with whom the act of Congress instructed the national organzation to co-operate. The length and breadth of it appears to be that the $500,000 appropriated for the national board contributed more to salaries than to helping fever-infected localities. MUCH CRY AND LITTLE WOOL.

Charlotte Observer, 23d, Some days since it was telegraphed over the country through the associated press that gross revenue frauds had been unearthed in Gaston county, these having been practiced through collu-sion between the distillers and storekeepers. To investigate these there has been a gathering of United States internal revenue officers at Gastonia, the investigations having began near-ly a week ago. The investigations ended yesterday and the charges vanished into very thin air. Commissioner Pittman returned home yesterday afternoon. During his sittings he issued eleven or twelve warrants and had the parties before him. Of these all but four were discharged and of those who were bound over three waived examination. The parties held are: A. B. Rhyne, A. M. Rhyne, B. T. Morris and J. W. Gamble, the last named in two cases. There was no evidence whatever against any of these going to show fraud; irregularities were shown and for these they were held to answer, but there was nothing against any of them reflecting in any sense upon their integrity. There was not a scintilla of evidence going to show collusion, and the prosecution fell to the ground. Only one warrant was executed against a store-keeper—S. M. Morris, at Gamble's distillery—and the case against him was dismissed when the evidence was taken.

SOUND SENSE.

The True Meaning of the Result in Ohio. Frankfort (Ky.) Yeoman. We are at a critical period in our affairs, but the situation is one by no means desperate if we shall act with that deliberate wisdom which the occasion demands, and which a common safety calls for. Pending this struggle we have not cared to speculate or to suggest the course which the contingency that has happened would require. There is now but one thing to be done by the Democracy of the country to save us from defeat in 1880, and that is to bury all animosities, to lay aside all personal prejudice and predilections, and take up the old ticket of Tilden and Hendricks. Looking to the possible success in Ohio, it was natural that the friends of Mr. Thurman should adhere with fidelity to his name as the head of our national ticket, or that the adherents of Mr. Hendricks should claim for him the right of Western leadership. But with the result in Ohio, neither of them is a possibility. In fact the Presi-dential question ceases, as far as the Democracy is concerned, to be a personal one in any respect. The election of any Democratic ticket is involved in too much doubt to make any one an aspirant in a personal sense. There is left but the broad question as to whether the American people will confirm the act by which Tilden and Hendricks, after having been elected by a majority of the voters, if fairly counted, were defrauded of office. This is the only issue which rises to the dignity of a national one, and should be pressed at every step. It matters not what may be the result in New York. The same reasons which threw Sherman and Blaine in Ohio will throw them cheek-by-jowl with Conkling into New York. With them personal issues are sunk. What boots t that Cornell was removed by Hayes from Federal office in New York, and that Sherman denounced him as corrupt and dishonest! The power Conkling has made him the Republican candidate for Governor, and yet the fraud issue is as much represented by him as though he were one of Hayes' right hand men. We shall se Evarts and Sherman and Blaine and Conkling, and, perhaps, even Hayes himself, with the power of the Government, striving to win another victory or the party, even under the leadership of this besmirched ex-official, who, at the worst, is no worse than his former We look for better things from New York than Ohio, but, whatever the result, it will not alter the issue we have before us. We do not require that Mr. Tilden shall carry Governor Robinson to victory as a condition precedent to our support of him for President. If Robinson is elected it may make his path smoother, but, if he is defeated, it vill not affect the issue. We shall have a principle to contend for, and when ever the Democratic party plants itself upon a principle, it can afford defeat, if, indeed, the American people shall be so dead to honor as to be deaf to duty in the issue which will be then pre

Connecticut Murder Cases. BRIDGEPORT, Oct. 22.—The counse for William Bucholz yesterday moved to have his second trial postponed to a future term of the court. A YOUNG TRAVELER

FROM THE SEAT OF LEARNING TO THE WESTERN WILDS.

Senate Page on His Travels Investigating Election Frauds and Wonders of the Western Wilds.

It was stated in yesterday's issue of the News that Master Henry Manly, who has a birthright claim on Raleigh as his home, had arrived in the city on a visit to his father, Dr. L. C. Manly. This young gentleman has started out early in life on a public career, and with inherited ability as well as kind friends to aid him in getting over the stumbling blocks that beset the pathway of every youthful aspirant, it will be his own fault if, on arriving at the age of middle manhood, he has not appeared to advantage in the political annals of the country. For the past two and a half years he has served as a page in the National Senate chamber. By uniform courtesy and attention to duty he has made many friends among the Senators of either party, and it is owing to this that he has been expecially favored during he has been especially favored during the past summer.

After the winding up of the special session last June, he was invited by Mr. James I. Christie, deputy sergeant-at-arms of the Senate, to accompany him to his home at Dover, N. H., and on the other of July, the party including the the 9th of July, the party, including the Hon. R. J. Bright, sergeant-at-arms of the Senate, started for Boston. Of course everything that was to be seen at the "Hub" was taken in, and after an en-joyable visit in the State once known as the "Old Granite State" but now as the political domain of the Hon. William E. Chandler, visiting statesman, etc., returned to New York, paced the sea-girt shore of Coney Island, and then met with the Wallace committee in its search for election frauds. From there the committee went to Boston and thence to Providence. Their stay at the latter city was limited, as other strangers were getting tired of sitting around on Massachusetts and Connec-ticut soil awaiting their turn to get into

By invitation of the superintendent of the Kansas Pacific Railroad the senatorial party took a trip westward to Colorado. Here various points of interest were visited, and the young gentleman speaks in glowing terms of the wenders of the West. Leaving Idaho Springs the eastward route was taken up, and after witnessing many interesting incidents on the way, reached Chicago in safety. Here Senator Logan took the party in charge and conveyed them about the city, visiting the immense stock yards located there.

The residenters of the eastern end of the country came on to Washington, reaching there on Sunday last, and Master Manly started for home on Tuesday, arriving as before stated on Wednesday. BALTIMORE ELECTION.

A Republican Foothold Gained in the Councils. BALTIMORE, Oct. 22.—The municipal election to-day was one of the most quiet and orderly ever held in the city. Latrobe, Democratic candidate for mayor, carried all the wards except the eighteenth and twentieth, his total majority being 5,899 over Hooper. Republican. Latrobe's total vote was 25,729; Hooper's, 19,830; Mathiot, Greenback, 95. For the first branch of the city council the Democrats elected 18 members and the Republicans 2, which is a gain of 2. In the second branch the Democrats elect 9, Republicans 1—a

THE HINDS-JAMES MURDER CASE.

Acquittal of the Hinds Brothers of the Charge. BALTIMORE, Oct. 22 .- In the Circuit Court at Towsontown, Baltimore county, to-day, the case of Denwood B. Hinds, as principal, and his brother, Harry Hinds, as accessory, for the murder of Isaac James in this city on the 16th of April last, came up for trial, and after the examination of a number of witnesses the State Attorney abandoned the prosecution, and c to and accepted a plea of self-defense by the accused, and the prisoners were dis-charged. When the parties were in-dicted for the murder bail was refused, and they were confined for some months in the city jail. Application by the counsel was then made for the removal of the case from the Criminal court of this city to the Circuit court of Baltimore county, which was granted. The prisoners were then admitted to bail, and the trial coming on to-day, resulted as above stated. When Mr. James was shot by young Hinds the deepest indignation was felt by the entire public at the act. It was alleged that Denwood Hinds had, while an accepted suitor, seduced a daughter of James, an accomplished and highly respected young lady. In December last a brother of the young lady and this place of amlady sought Hinds at his place of em-ployment and charging him with the seduction of his sister, commenced firing on him. Hinds immediately drew his revolver and returned the fire. Several shots were exchanged on each side, and both young men were wounded. Hinds left the city. Shortly wounded. Hinds let, the city. Shortly after, Miss James died, it was said, in child-bed. Subsequently Hinds returned to the city, and while walking on the street, in company with his brother, early in the morning, they were met by Isaac James, the father of the young lady. An encounter with pistols immediately occurred, and James was killed.

James was killed. How Great Men Die.

GEO. C. JORDAN, Editor and Prop'r. HERE is another Southern outrage. It is a wonder the Republicans were not killed for making such an impudent request. When the news of the result in Ohio reached Austin, Texas, the Republicans there determined to celebrate it. They applied to the Democratic Governor for the loan of the State cannon to fire a salute, and he courteously granted the request. It's well enough to make a note of such an occurrence in

It is apparent to any Republican of ordinary good sense that Mr. Tilden can be more easily beaten than any other Democratic candidate whose name has been mentioned, and that the candidacy of such men as Bayard and Hancock is especially to be feared.— New York Mail.

a Southern State.

What a foolish lot the Republicans are. Naturally one would think this belief or knowledge would have been kept to themselves in order that the Democrats would have put up the easiest man to defeat. This would have saved time, trouble and money.

THE New York Tribune has gone back to a rehearsal of a Southern outrage on a postmistress in Grant's administration, and gets as red-hot about it editorially, as though Southern sentiment had not improved in three years.— Springfield Republican.

We are real sorry the material for a fresh crop of outrages gave out so early, but the truth of the matter is the people of the South have been so thoroughly engrossed with their business that little time has been left to go gunning for postmasters. Nix was the last case, and that, judging from the Postmaster-General's action, doesn't go very far toward "firing the Northern heart." However, an artist or two will do just as well.

THE Louisiana Republican State Convention, which met on Monday and nominated Hon. Taylor Beattie for Governor, have completed the State ticket, as follows: For Lieutenant-Governor, James M. Gillespie, a wealthy planter of Tensas; Attorney-General, Don A. Pardee, an ex-Federal official; State Auditor, Hon. Claudius Mayo, a prominent citizen of St. Landry; Superintendent of Education, Dr. M. F. Bonzano, of St. Bernard, formerly connected with the New Orleans mint; Secretary of State, James T. Kennedy, colored, of New Orleans. The convention passed resolutions protesting against the proposed ejectment of ex-Governor Kellogg from the United States Senate. The platform declares that the general government is "composed of States free in their spheres, but subordidate to the national government," and favors a protective tariff, improvement of the Mississippi, national aid to a Southern Pacific railroad, encouragement of American shipping by subsidies, and the construction of an American canal across the Isthmus of Darien. It also opposes the State debt ordinance. A resolution was adopted in favor of Grant for next President.

THE "MOONSHINERS."

From the many and oft-repeated accounts appearing in the Northern papers relative to the doings of the moonshiners"-and which, very curiously, are nearly all credited to North Carolinians-it would seem as if the whole world drew its supplies from the illicit distilleries in operation throughout the South. The quantity distilled must be set down as simply enormous, and the amount abstracted from the revenue is frightful to those who look upon the tax laid on spirits as the source from which the national debt is to be paid. There is a comical side to this. The idea that the Government is to provide for its debt from the proceeds of say a couple of hundred stills of three-barrel capacity is enough to excite the risibilities of any one. If the illicit manufacture was important enough to. make any serious inroad on the revenue it would be a different thing. But it is not. There is no chance of shipping the "crooked" stuff to any extent, and the distillers depend on a mere local traffic to eke out a scanty livelihood. The laws say that such manufacture should be stopped-and the laws should be upheld. But why magnify a molehill into a mountain? Recently there was a distillery unearthed in Washington within four blocks of the Treasury building, and we will venture the assertion that this same concern has turned out more of the "crooked" than all the "moonshine" establishments in Western Carolina. Of course, when the discovery was made it attracted some little attention; then it became a source of merriment to think that illicit distillation had been going on for months under the noses of the revenue officials; the whole matter is forgotten. But they do not forget the poor North Carolina "moonshiners." No, it is too good a campaign card. If a poor Southern State, swept from end to end during the war, her inhabitants impoverished, and just enabled after years of labor and suffering to gain once more a foothold for future advancement, does not contribute quite so much as a wealthy Northern State toward the revenue, why, it's owing to the acts of the "moonshiners." Should a man go along the highway at night and be caught up by a tramp, the same as has been done hundreds of times in Pennsylvania within the past four years, it's applicant, who was of the same name, was a cousin of the President. The man left for New York, with full assurances that his client would be appointed. But he foolishly advertised in the New York Herald that two government offices were for sale. Wily opponents, suspecting that they were offices promised by the applicant in question, wrote, and confirmed their suspicions by interviews and contracts with the man who had come to Washington to fix the act of a gang of "moonshiners." JAnd so the news travels abroad. To udge from the sayings of the pestilential Radical politicians, this State is in-

The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternative with lax; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painfui sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to nim, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged.

New Orleans Times.

Mr. Cooper rejoices over this success. A Curious Painting Discovered. New York World. A curious discovery has made at the Vernon House, Newport, Rhode Island, which was formerly the headquarters of Washington, Lafayette and Rochambeau. It is now being prepared for the officers of the United States Geological Bureau. A day or so ago it became recessary to remove a large, broad panel from over the fire place in one of the up-stairs rooms. Behind in one of the up-stairs rooms. Behind this panel was discovered an old fresco painted in oil on plaster and measuring some three feot square. The subject appears to be a West Indian scene. In one corner are the figures of three beautiful females, one being dressed in red with hair flowing beneath a hat decorated with plumes. In her hand she holds a mandolin. This group stands at the gate of a castle beyond stands at the gate of a castle beyond which may be seen a cluster of houses with red-tiled roofs. Opposite is a tur-baned negro holding two snow white horses somewhat heavily harnessed. In the background is a gathering of Indians with long lances. The painting is bordered above by a stripe of yellow, over which is a frieze of passion flowers and sea-shells. It is a curious work of art, and has proved quite a puzzle to local connoisseurs. It has been presented to the Redwood Library.

Sly Doctors. It is a fact that many of the "regu-lar" doctors who will not recommend Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure for the diseases which it so effecually removes, yet use it "on the sly" in their practice. They must soon adopt it openly as the standard remedy.

The most Healing, Soothing and Refreshing External Application in the World.

the World.

It rapidly heals Ulcers, Old Sores, and Discharging Wounds; Itching Piles and other Itching affections that have been the torture of a lifetime, thus affording unspeakable gratification to thousands; Burns, Scalds, Wounds and Fester; all Itching and Scaly Eruptions of the Skin, and all Affections of the scalp, including Loss of Hair. Nothing like it has ever been known to the most intelligent physicians. It has swept a host of poisonous remedies out of existence. It is revolutionary in its composition and mode oftreatment and succeeds in curing every external affection. At every stage it is ably assisted by CUTICURA SOAP, which is a part of itself medicinally and at the same time the most delightfully fragrant and refreshing Toilet, Bath, and Nursery Soap in existence.

CUTICURA RESOLVENT, a powerful purifying agent and liver stimulant, should be taken to neutralize and resolve away blood poisons, caused by the virus of scrofula, cancer, canker, malarial or contagious diseases, which maintain and foster diseases of the skin and scalp.

SALT RHEUM.

Life a burden from the sufferings caused by this terrible disease. MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER-Gentlemen: MESSRS. WEEKS & FOTTER—Gentlemen:
Please accept my most grateful thanks for the great, very great, comfort I have received from the use of your CUTICURA.
For the past eight or nine years I have been troubled with that dreadful disease,

For months I would be helpless,—my very If it is a burden to me.

I have used everything in the shape of medicine, both external and internal, but with no effect. with no effect.

My hands were in a terrible condition, the backs of them being all raw, and I thought I would try Cutteura.

I tried it, and lo!! it was as if a miracle had been performed, for I will take my oath that in three applications my hands were as smooth as a new-born babe's.

I presume there are hundreds, if not thousands, who know of my case, among whom there may be some one similarly afflicted, and if so I would earnestly advise him to give Cutteura a trial.

nnd II so I would earnestly advise him to give Cuticura a trial.

Yours, very thankfully,

Tetter or Salt Rheum

On the hands cured. A greatful letter. MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER—Gentlemen:—Having been troubled for many years with the Tetter or Salt Rheum, I spent many a hard-earned doilar. I was given a trial of your UTICURA, and, thank God, my hands are well. I never had anything do me good I ke that.

I hever had anything do me good I ke that.

You may put this in the paper and welceme, and may it do some other poor sufferer the same good it has done me! I am well known here, having lived here almost fifteen years and kept boarders for a living, and sometimes my heart was sore, thinking I would have to give up altogether with my sore hands, and having a small family to take care of; but oh! thank God, my hands are well, so I again return thanks.

Yours respectfully,

ELIZABETH BUKLEY.

Cato is an ex-penitentiary bird; the woman in the case has likewise served out a term of nine years in that institution, and one of the witnesses in the case was recently a convict there. It is a source of great an-noyance to the people of this county that all these depraved people are turned loose on us after serving their terms out, instead of being sent back from where they were convicted. Here is this case, which attracted considerable attention, that will cost Wake county nearly two hundred dollars. It would be cheaper and far more judicious for our commissioner to have them sent home and let the county bear the expenses. A great many expressions to this effect were heard yesterday at the conclusion of this trial.

YORKTOWN.

Celebration of the Ninety-eighth Anniversary of the Surrender.

Richmond Dispatch, 23d. The preliminary celebration will take place at Yorktown to-day. It is in-tended to arouse attention to the Centennial anniversary of the surrender of Cornwallis-October 19, 1881. By that time it is hoped Congress will fulfill its promise, and have a marble column erected on the field of victory, and when all the States may unite and with befitting pomp celebrate an event which reflected signal luster upon our arms and secured for the colonies peace and Yorktown was occupied by the British in September, 1781. Cornwal-lis had about seven thousand five hundred troops (English and Hessians), composed of his own victorious army, lately from the Carolinas, and most of the troops that had been ravaging Virginia under Benedict Arnold and General Phillips.

YORKTOWN WAS SELECTED as a good point from which to continue the harassing warfare upon Virginia and Maryland, or to move to New York, as necessity might require. The troops which cooped Cornwallis up at Yorktown and Gloucester Point were Lafayette's little army, which had been contending with the British marauders around Richmond; Washington and Rochambeau's army, which had been menacing New York, and by admirable strategy had kept Clinton in alarm about himself until fairly on the way to Virginia; the Virginia mi-litia, under the patriot Governor Nelson; several French brigades landed from the French fleet, together with the French fleet of twenty-eight vessels, On the 28th of September the allied armies left Williamsburg for Yorktown, The French fleet blockaded the mouth of York river. By the 6th of October the allies were ready to open the bombardment in earnest. They did it with such success as to make Yorktown a very comfortable place. Two redoubts were wrested from the British by assault-one by the Americans under Lafayette and Hamilton; the other by the French under Baron de Viomesuil Four or five of the British vessels were fired by red-hot shot and destroyed. UNABLE TO STAND THE BOMBARDMENT.

having found a sortie useless, foiled in an attempt to escape across the river, and despairing of relief from Clinton at New York, whose promises of succor were overdue, Cornwallis, on the 19th of October, surrendered the garrisons at Yorktown and Gloucester Point, to the Americans, his fleet to the

The loss of the British was one hundred and fifty-six killed, three hundred and twenty-six wounded, and seventy nissing. The whole number surrendered by capitulation was a little more than seven thousand. The allied army employed consisted of about sever thousand regular American troops, more than five thousand French, and four thousand militia-total, sixteen thousand. There were surrendered seventy-five brass and one hundred and sixty-nine iron cannon, seven thousand seven hundred and ninety-four muskets, twenty-eight regimental standards (ten English and eighteen Hessian), ordnance, quartermaster, and other stores, etc.

TOM JOHNSON, THE OUTLAW.

His Wife's Report as to His Death Apparently Corroborated.

Wilmington Star, 23d. We mentioned a week or two ago a report brought here by the wife of Tom Johnson, to the effect that the outlaw was killed at a place called Strawberry, about twenty miles this side of Charleston, some time in July last, by a boy, who shot him in a store while he was in the act of committing a robbery. Not knowing how much reliance to place upon the word of Johnson's wife, officer Carr, to whom she had told the story referred to, wrote a few days since to the postmaster at at Strawberry to know if there was any truth in the report. Yesterday he received a reply, which was to the effect that there was an unknown colored man shot at a store about one mile from Strawberry, at the time mentioned, which, according to Johnson's wife, was on the 18th of July, or the Friday subsequent to the Heaton tragedy in this city, and that he was shot by a lad named J. M. Ward, about thirteen years of age, in self-defence.

Mary Ann Johnson, in her statement to Justice Gardner and Officer Carr, says that she was living in Charleston at the time; that a party came to her house and told her that her husband had been shot at the place indicated, and that while in the agonies of death he kept calling for her, stating that he had something valuable to give her; and that her informant stated that Johnson was in the store and in the act of committing the robbery, when the youth in question seized a gun, which Johnson attempted to wrest from him, when he shot him. Taking everything into consideration the letter from Strawberry is considered as confirming the report of Johnson's wife, and it is now believed that the noted outlaw is really dead. The woman did not see the corpse, but says she has never seen or heard any thing of her husband since the reported shooting, and she firmly believes that he was the party who was shot and

Conference of Railroaders. Charlotte Observer, 23d,

Capt. Jas. O. Moore, chief engineer of the Winston and Salem and Mooresville Railroad, went up the Richmond & Danville Railroad yesterday morning to meet Mr. Garrett, of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company, and Receiver Barbour, of the Virginia Midand, for the purpose of conferring with them with a view to inducing them to utilize the road bed of his road, as much thereof as completed, in their proposed extension of the their proposed extension of the Virginia Midland from Danville through parts of North Carolina. About twenty-two miles of the Winston & Salem Mooresville Railroad are already graded, and Capt. Moore reports hav-ing on hand and attainable a sufficient amount to grade the road to a point between Mooresville and Winston-fiftyfive miles in all. The idea proposed would cause a deflection of the proposed extension before it reached Statesville, making Mooresville the objective point on the Atlantic, Tennes-see & Ohio Railroad, and the people of Statesville will no doubt exert themselves to nullify such a programme.

The Exodus to Indiana.

Washington Republican, 23d. Information has been received from Mr. J. M, Adams, secretary of the Emigrant Aid Society, that arrangements have been made for the transportation of about two hundred emigrants from LaGrange N. C., to the northern section of Indiana, in the neighborhood of Green Castle. These emigrants, it is expected, will arrive here in about two weeks. Mr. Adams has also arranged so that he can give his attention to the matter of transporting emigrants for the next few months. The indications are that a large number will be transported and provided with work and homes. The young men, Perry and Williams, who went out a few weeks ago on a prospect-ing tour to Indiana, have come back well pleased with their reception. They found plenty of work there to be done. They report that the people of Indiana are anxious to have them return to that State and bring as many of their people

Colored Man Drowned.

Wilmington Star, 23d. We learn an unknown colored man was drowned off Hutching's flat, at the foot of Princess street, on Tuesday He was seen to fall or step from the flat into the river, but was never seen to rise to the surface. The hands on the flat say that he came on board during the day and represented that he belonged on some boat on the river. He was an entire stranger to to those on board and no one asked him his name, consequenty there is as yet no clue to his identity.

Drowned.

Washington Press. Mr, William Burgess, who has been running a small vessel on the river for some time past, was found drowned somewhere near Bath last week. No one was on the vessel at the time and she was anchored. It is supposed that as he threw the anchor overboard he was pulled over himself, and not being able to get back was drowned in that way. He leaves a family who are dependent upon him for support.

It is indorsed by the direct personal testimony of men of national fame and strictness of speech. It is not too much to say that no medicine ever had such support in its favor as a specific. The word of any one of the eminent divines who underwrite this intidate to diverge in the description. of the eminent divines who underwrite this antidote to dyspepsia has deserved weight. Their united witness joined with the experimental use and approval of the preparation by well-known physicians, emoves all doubt. It is beyond question, a wonderful therapeutical agent.—Editors Religious Herald, Va.

About twelve years I suffered from Dyspepsia. Falling in with this remedy, I gave it a fair trial. After its use I could eat anything with impunity. I am sure I am Indebted to this medicine for what of health and physical comfort I have had for the last sixteen years. I have known many since to be relieved by its use.

Rev. Robert W. Watts, A. M., Va. I have used the mixture in my family for years, and have taken it for a Dyspepsia Colic, which threatened my life, and was cured, eating any diet without hurt. I have recommended it to other sufferers with happiest results. It is the best tonic and corrective I ever knew. For prostration from Dyspepsia or Liver Disease it is invaluable. J.D. Eggleston, M.D., Va.
It is a highly valuable remedy, and is more extensively used than any single article in the whole list of medicines, so faras I observed in my practice, for all the complaints in families from indigestion. I use it and recommend it.
